ACE

Alliance of Chinese and European Business Schools (ACE) was founded on 31 May, 2013 in Angers, France. Twenty universities and colleges are the founding members of the alliance, which is under the patronage of EFMD(European Foundation for Management Development). In the framework of ACE, several members effectively utilized the Sino-European resource and launched a brand new master program -Master ACE. Master ACE program takes advantage of the resources and faculties from European partnership universities and allows the participants to have diverse experiences in one or two European countries and universities.
